50X1-HUM

1. There is no evidence in Bucharest, Stalin, or Sinaia of any special system of street marking and most of the number plates are obviously pre-war.
2. Sinaia town hall is situated at 12 Boulevard Republica and the police headquarters at 44 Boulevard Republica.
3. It is estimated that 200,000 people are now annually leaving the fields for the towns. This is only partly offset by the recent compulsory emigration of families from towns to the country. It is believed that 1,000 people have been moved from Bucharest in this way, 900 from Ploesti and 100 from the small town of Sinaia.
